

THE PRUDENTIAL SPIRIT OF COMMUNITY AWARDS

HONORING OUTSTANDING COMMUNITY SERVICE BY YOUNG AMERICANS

February 4, 2011

Priya Krishnan

Dear Priya:

It is our great pleasure to inform you that you have been selected as Virginia's top youth volunteer in the 2011 Prudential Spirit of Community Awards! Our judges were so impressed with your outstanding volunteer work that they chose you from among all of the other Virginia nominees in this year's program to be recognized as one of your state's two State Honorees for the year 2011. This is a great honor for you, your school, and your community. Congratulations!

Sometime during the next few months, your school will arrange for you to be presented with an engraved Prudential Spirit of Community silver medallion. Then, from April 30 – May 3, 2011, we want to bring you to Washington, D.C., along with the other 101 State Honorees, so that we may further salute your accomplishments during several exciting days of special recognition events. There, you will receive $1,000 and be considered for one of ten national awards. More information on this celebration is enclosed.

Above all, we want to take this opportunity to thank you for your compassionate dedication to improving the lives of others. The kind of vision and commitment you have demonstrated is extremely important to the future of our neighborhoods, our cities, and our nation. Young volunteers like yourself are inspiring examples to all of us; you are our brightest hopes for a better tomorrow.

Based on the number of volunteer hours indicated on your application, you also have qualified for the President's Volunteer Service Award, which recognizes Americans of all ages who have volunteered significant amounts of their time to serve their communities and their country. On behalf of President Barack Obama, we are proud to be able to present this prestigious award to Prudential Spirit of Community honorees who have met its requirements. A President's Volunteer Service Award certificate and a letter from the President will be mailed to you under separate cover.

Again, congratulations on your selection as a 2011 Prudential Spirit of Community Awards State Honoree! We look forward to seeing you on April 30.

Sincerely,
